JOB DESCRIPTION – HVAC SERVICE TECHNICIAN

Service technicians exhibit proficiency in servicing, troubleshooting and cleaning of heating and cooling equipment and related products (i.e., forced air, hydronics, electronic heat, make up air and exhaust systems).

Service technicians are responsible for retrofit, repair and maintenance of industrial/commercial and possibly some residential environmental comfort systems. Service technician apprentices will gain knowledge of air conditioning theory, pipefitting, sheet metal, and other mechanical layouts.

Responsibilities:

- Have working knowledge of electronic wiring diagrams, schematics and architectural/mechanical blueprints.
- Adhere to all local, state and federal building codes practices and regulations.
- Servicing equipment on assigned projects.
- Perform repairs, overhauls, and start ups of commercial HVAC systems.
- Identify, analyze, diagnose, and repair systems, and products at customer's location.
- Perform preventative maintenance, site surveys, replacement, and modifications as needed.
- Prepares for on-site installation and repairs by examining building layout, anticipating difficulties, gathering materials and coordinating on-site work, as necessary.
- Use a variety of hand tools.
- Documents work by properly completing paperwork on each job.
- Communicate in a professional manner with co-employees, subcontractors and customers.
- Be aware of and remain responsible for his or her tool and materials inventory.
- Possess a valid Alaska Drivers License.

Technical criteria include, but are not limited to the following:

- Ability to understand the English language for the purposes of listening, reading, writing and other communication skills necessary in the workplace
- Mathematic skills including basic algebra, geometry, geometric construction and trigonometry
- Knowledge of physics, mechanical, gases, liquids and mass

Notice of Right to Register Complaints

Any apprentice or applicant for apprenticeship who believes he or she has been discriminated against on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, or sex has 180 days from the date of the alleged discrimination to register a written complaint.

Complaints may be registered with the employer, the above named training trust, the Department of Labor, or directly to the complaint review body (which in this case would be the Alaska South-central – Southeastern Sheet Metal Workers' Local Union No. 23 Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee).

If you choose not to register a complaint in the order given, or if there is not a procedure in place, you may register a written complaint in any order of preference.

APPRENTICESHIP & EMPLOYMENT CONDITIONS

- You should be aware that in this construction trade, you must travel to various construction projects throughout SMWIA LU #23's jurisdiction.
- A requirement of this apprentice program is attendance of all related training required by the JATC in addition to your normal working hours. You will be required to attend these related training classes without monetary compensation, even if those classes are held during a normal working day.
- Employment in this trade may not be full time and there may be periods of unemployment due to weather, economic conditions and other circumstances.
- Apprentices start at a percentage of journeyman rate and receive periodic increases. These increases are not automatic but depend on the progress made by the apprentice in on-the-job-training and related classroom training.
- This occupation could involve the lifting of heavy objects, working in confined areas and working in high places, both on roofs and scaffolding.
- When an offer of employment has been made, the applicant may be required to submit to a physical examination which may include drug testing. Failure of the drug test, if any, will result in the withdrawal of the employment and apprenticeship offer and you may not reapply for a period of one year.

I authorize investigation of all statements contained herein and of the references listed herein and authorize my former employers, references and/or schools I have attended to release any and all information concerning my previous employment and any pertinent information they may have, personal or otherwise, and release all parties from all liability for any damage that may result from furnishing the same.
